YOUR ADVENTURE AWAITS

Customize everything from tents and food to starting point, difficulty and length - our many years of experience guarantees that we can make sure you're up for the task, be it two nights close to the comfort of a city, or a week in the true wilderness of the arctic.

Our teams are made up from nature guides and wildlife experts, passionate about the challenges that comes with arctic expeditions. They all have years of experience when it comes to winter camping and the wonders of Lapland.

PACKAGES

Fox - Two nights of camping, close to the city of Kiruna. We travel by snow mobile to our two destinations, where we set up our large tents, light a fire and wait for nightfall.

Wolf - Five nights of camping in Abisko National Park. We walk between our camping spots and carry the necessary equipment. A truly wild experience!
